MVP RV Signs Little Dealer Little Prices with Tahoe

Southern California RV manufacturer set to launch the all new Tahoe line of Class C's in Arizona

February 21 2011, Riverside, CA. – MVP RV, Inc. today announced that it has reached an agreement with Little Dealer Little Prices, located in Phoenix Arizona. "We are very excited to be representing this new line", said Debbie Brunoforte, Little Dealer Little Price's President. "We took our time before making this decision. We had other Class C's brands available to us, but in the end, Tahoe's price/value relationship, attention to detail, and West coast production facility made them the clear choice for us".

"We are very proud to be adding Little Dealer Little Prices to our growing MVP RV family", said Niles Whitehouse, Tahoe's National Sales and Product Manager. "Little Dealer is a family owned and operated RV dealership that has been in business for over 40 years. Their commitment to customer service, attention to detail, support of our industry, and reputation for selling quality products made them the obvious choice for us. We could not be more excited."

The all new 2011Tahoe comes standard with a 4.0 Onan generator, 3 burner range with oven, deep double bowl stainless steel galley sink, 83" interior height throughout, hard wood drawers with full extension roller bearing guides, pass through storage on all models, Ford V-10 engine, and 32" LCD TV. MSRP starting at $61,544.00
